Whereas I, V. V. Giri, President of India, have received a report from the Governor of Kerala and after considering the report and other information received by me, I am satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the Government of that State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of India (hereinafter referred to as "the Constitution");

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by article 356 of the Constitution and all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby proclaim that I—

(i) in the exercise of the functions and powers assumed to myself by virtue of clause (a) of this Proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for me as President of India to act to such extent as I think fit through the Governor of the said State;

(ii) the operation of the following provisions of the Constitution in relation to that State is hereby suspended, namely:—

so much of the proviso to article 3 as relates to reference by the President of such Bill as is referred to therein to the Legislature of the State;

so much of clause (2) of article 323 as relates to the laying of the report with a memorandum before the Legislature of the State;

(iii) any reference in the Constitution to the Governor shall in relation to the said State be construed as a reference to the President, and any reference therein to the Legislature or Legislative Assembly of the State shall in so far as it relates to the functions and powers thereof, be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as a reference to Parliament, and, in particular, the references in article 213 to the Governor and to the Legislature or Legislative Assembly of the State shall be construed as references to the President and to Parliament respectively;
